

A decorative black vine border with small leaves runs along the top, left, and bottom edges of the page. The right edge is open.

Welcome to My Studio

Thank you for being here. I'm so glad you've joined my creative world.

About the Artist

Hi, I'm Vick—an artist and illustrator inspired by nature and faith. I create paintings that capture quiet moments, stories of places, and the beauty found in everyday life. My work is rooted in reflection and a love for the natural world.

What You'll Receive

- New painting reveals
- Behind-the-scenes studio moments
- Creative reflections from my process
- Faith-filled encouragement and inspiration

A Glimpse Into My Work

Lupine Meadow is one of the paintings I created very loosely and had the most fun with. To me, there's nothing else more therapeutic than expressing oneself without judgment.

A decorative border of a black vine with small leaves, framing the white text area on a light green background.

From My Studio to You

I believe art is a way of slowing down and noticing what matters. To create without feeling comparison or judgement. A place to be you.

Thank you for being part of this journey—it means so much to me.

Victoria Loria